Micro-writing SOCIAL MEDIA prompts to use in the Secondary Classroom

- Expert Advisor

- Answer a question that frequently comes up about a passion, topic, or other area that interests you.

- Line Leader

- Share an 'epic fail' you experienced while working on a passion/topic/area of interest and how you trouble-shot or navigated around the set-back.

- Me + Gen Z

- Share a quote that is most representative of your generation's thoughts or perspectives on _____. (brainstorm a list of possible topics as a class and let them decide)

- Upon Reflection

- Share a milestone or corner you've turned and are proud of in pursuing a passion/topic/area of interest. Use the power of storytelling to inspire your audience in this regard.

- 'Actually...' Arguments

- Introduce new information that recently surfaced about your passion/topic/area of interest that changes the way it may be perceived.

- Get Messy

- Do a video tutorial showing your audience how to avoid big mess-ups as they relate to a passion, topic, or area that interests you.

- Tools of the Trade

- Compare a method or strategy you used to use when pursuing a passion/topic/interest before discovering a newer, more efficient one.

• This Just In...

- Connect elements of a national or international holiday (or observance) to your passion/topic/area of interest.

• Can We Connect/Engage?

- Aside from the obligatory statements (i.e. I want to graduate high school, go to college, land a job), share with your audience 5 specific goals you'd like to see through before the age of 25. Then ask them to share theirs.

• Promo

- Debunk 3-5 myths that might be holding others back from getting into your particular passion/topic/area of interest.

• Asking for a Friend

- Ask your audience to recommend people you could potentially reach out to create connections and network within your area of passion/topic/area of interest.

• Pay it Forward

- Tell the story of and celebrate the founder(s) of your passion/topic/area of interest.

• Hashtag Inspirations

- Use a 'daily' hashtag to share what you're working on or what progress you're making with your passion/topic/area of interest (#SundayFunday, #MessyMonday, #TuesdayVibes, #WednesdayWin, etc. etc.)

• Notable Quotables

- Share a quote that expresses something you value; it should be from a person related somehow to a passion or topic you're interested in.

• Core Standards

- Use today's post to prove your active practice or mastery of this week/month's learning standard.
